

HELIOSTAT CL (in suspendet design)

Three heliostats - here in hanging design - are used to direct the sunlight from a neighbouring building to the north side (!) of a residential building in order to brighten the living rooms - with natural light! Between Heliostat and light destination a distance of approx. 25m.

Diagram:

